Description

A tiny antique solid sterling silver vinaigrette dating from the reign of George III. It is very clearly hallmarked for Birmingham 1810 with the maker's mark of the highly esteemed silversmith, Samuel Pemberton. The front cover is decorated with a beautifully detailed flower and the reverse with wriggle work encasing an empty rectangular cartouche. The two hinges are in good order, as is the gilding inside. There is a ring for attaching to a chatelaine. Dimensions: Length: 2.5cm Width: 1.5cm Depth: 0.5cm. Complimentary gift wrapping is available on request. Post and packaging are free within the UK. Overseas buyers please e-mail for postage costs and please note: Import duties, taxes, and charges are not included in the item price or shipping cost. These charges are the buyer's responsibility. Please check with your country's customs office to determine what these additional costs will be prior to buying.
