Description

A very good quality early 19th century English mahogany MANTEL CLOCK in excellent original condition. The case is of finest mahogany, beautifully figured with 'book-matched' flame mahogany veneers to the front and top, whilst the eight-day twin chain-driven fusee movement is of exceptional quality, striking hours and half hours on a bell. The gilded dial is decorated with engine turning, and the blued steel hands are of delicate of "heart" shape. Complete with original steel and brass high quality adjustable pendulum. Unsigned, although the hands are very reminiscent of the best English clockmakers of the early 19th century, such as Vulliamy or Viner. Perfect working order. Dimensions: 13iins high; 8ins wide; 6ins deep front-to-back. (33 x 20 x 15cms)
