

SA1017377

Portrait of a Girl - Antique Oil Painting

Price

Sold

Item Reference: SA1017377

Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Dimensions

Height = 80 cm (31.5")

Description

19th Century oil on canvas showing a portrait of a girl signed Josse Impens (1840 - 1905). The painting is mounted in a super gilt and silver gilt frame with cream slip and has a plaque on the bottom with the artists name and dates as well as some details by the artist. Josse Impens was a Belgian painter known for his interior scenes, genre scenes, portraits and nudes. He painted a number of scenes of artists and women. He also painted some city views. Impens was born in Brussels and studied in his home town at the Académie Royale des Beaux-Arts where Jean-François Portaels was one of his teachers. Impens exhibited works at the salons in Brussels (1891 and 1896) and Munich (1891 and 1894). He is listed in the Dictionnaire des Peintres Belges (in French) Dimensions - 80 cm x 64 cm

Seller Details

Rue des Fontenelles

Chagford Devon United Kingdom

Tel: 01647 432381 or 07933 200912

International Tel: +44 1647 432381 or +44 7933 200912