SoldItem Reference: SA101738*Date of manufacture: 1870

Description

A nice example of an early cigar case, beautifully constructed in a rich cognac coloured leather with a sterling silver collar. Both the leather and silver are signed by the London retailer C.A. Carlin - 145 Regent St. The silver also bears the English hallmark for London 1877 together with the much sought-after Queen Victoria's head duty mark. The makers initials are also present for the silversmith, Edward H Stockwell. Excellent condition, measuring 5 3/8" x 3 7/8".
