Description

Rare cased set of G W Bacon's Motor Maps of England and Wales. The leather case with carrying handle opens to a velvet lined interior holding nine individual, linen-backed folding maps of England and Wales. These maps are identified by area with a numbered tab. The maps are in perfect condition with a scale of five miles to an inch. Roads are pre-Ministry of Transport road-numbering scheme of 1923 and therefore are un-named. To the inside of the lid is a strap holding a 'Universal Map Measurer in its card case. Marked with the maker's trademark, 'depose HC' (for Henri Chatelain, toolmaker). Size width 15.5cm depth 7.5cm height 23cm Circa 1920
