Description

Stunning Antique Chippendale Side Table / Tea Table This Stunning early 19th Century Antique Chippendale Side Table / Tea Table / Games Table / Console Table is in the Chippendale design and dates from ca. 1800. It has a beautiful serpentine shaped top with beaded edge and it has the option of opening to double its size if required. This sits above two figured frieze drawers with decorative brass handles. This quality antique tea table has a shaped carved apron and stands on four moulded reeded legs. It has aged to a rich Mahogany shade with a striking grain, good patina, is in very good condition and has been beautifully cleaned using a traditional form of wax finishing.
