Description

An antique French carved giltwood feuiteuil in Louis XVI style, late 19th century, with oval button-upholstered back over a sprung seat and raised on tapering supports. In solid condition with a comfortable seat, some old repairs and re-touching to the gilt, the fabric is useable but does have some water staining (I have not attempted to clean but it could be improved with a steam clean). I can arrange re-covering and supply fabric if required - please contact me for further details. 97cm high, 70cm wide max, the seat 55cm deep and 40cm high.
