Description

This is a stylish 1920s / 30s leather armchair in really great original condition and a good rich colour to the leather. The chair is in excellent order with the leather being strong and supple and having loads of life left in it. The original feather filled cushion is in piped chenille moquette and the chair has a really stylish shape with thin back and lyre shape frame which has brass studding throughout. Hard to find in good original condition now this is a really characterful chair . The chair measures 74 cms high 70 cms wide by 65 cms deep. (Butterfly cushion is shown for decorative purposes only and is not included in the sale) UK delivery can be arranged with our trusted furniture courier and costs £65 plus vat to most destinations.
