Description

Highly decorative Anglo Indian side table made from solid tropical Hardwood from the Anglo Indian export era. The top is deeply carved with intricate flowers and leaves design with carvings of deity in the centre. Supported by 4 beautifully carved Indian elephants heads with bone tusks holding a carved flask in the trunk. This superb table remains in a solid condition with only surface markings commensurate with age and usage. A very stylish and elegant table that will continue to provide good service for many years to come.
