Description

An Interesting Antique English Rosewood and Boxwood Chess Set, 19th Century kings with extended columns and turned finials, queens with turned ball finials, bishops with open mitres, knights as carved horses' heads, rooks as stepped turrets, pawns with baluster knobs and ball finials, the chessmen with baizes to the undersides in a hinged wooden box with a light blue/green lining. King: 9.6cm Pawn: 3.9cm Box: 22.5cm wide, 15cm deep, 7.5cm high Stock Reference: MJ 2035 Interesting and unusual 19th century English chess pattern. Similar to the 'Calvert' pattern, or a variation, perhaps, on the 'St George' or 'Old English' patterns. The rosewood side features attractive stratifications and patination. A lovely antique chess set. Recommended.
