Description

A lovely cupboard by Maple & Co. of London. Well constructed in solid Ash and dating from the Victorian Aesthetic period. With a single door that opens to reveal a shelved interior. Would serve well as a bedside cupboard or within a living room. Offered for sale in excellent original condition, with a good colour and patina. Dimensions: Width 56cms Depth 45cms Height 89cms Maple & Co was established by John Maple, a shopkeeper from Horley, Surrey, who later opened a furniture shop in Tottenham Court Road. However it was his son, John Blundell Maple, who made Maples & Co a success. With exceptional business skills, John B. Maple took over the company while still a young man. By the 1880s they were the largest furniture store in the world, exported their fine furniture to every continent. Maples manufactured their luxury furniture entirely in-house, at a huge modern complex. A timber importer and furniture exporter, they landed prestigious contracts furnishing fine houses, hotels, embassies and palaces in Europe; among them Tsar Nicholas's Winter Palace and the Hofburg Imperial Palace in Vienna. With his own empire established, John Blundell Maple achieved further fame...
