Description

A typical late Regency period gilt pier mirror. The mirror is wonderfully untouched with all original gilding and in very good condition. The mirror has an elaborated moulded frieze with this design echoed in the columns at the sides. There is an ebonised slip which frames the original mirror plate. The whole has a great untouched country house look and is ready to hang. C.1840. Overall sizes in inches: 23 wide 30 ¾ high 4 deep
