Description

This is a small antique carved coffer. An English, oak blanket box with Gothic revival taste, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1880. Exuberant display of carved craftsmanship, with appealing proportion. Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order. Oak stocks present deep chestnut hues throughout. Nicely figured with fine grain interest. Gadrooned edge to the lid, with a bold diamond lozenge to the centre. Front and sides adorned with carved cameo portraits in relief. Accentuated with a host of Gothic motifs to great effect. Pleasingly clean interior. Ideal for use as a blanket box in the lounge or bedroom. This is a charming antique carved coffer, of small proportion but a confidently decorative appearance. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
