Description

This is a beautiful Sterling Silver Box from the 1920s. It would perfect for storing small items in. It comes in a gift bag and would be a very special present. It was made by IS Greenberg & Co and it was Hallmarked in Birmingham in 1929. The box has a Sterling Silver exterior and a beautiful engineered lined design to the lid with a blank rectangular cartouche in the centre. The hinge works well and the lid lifts to show a very pretty Cedar wood interior. The Silver is shiny with a few small dents and scratches. There's a small lined dint in the lid and it closes well but doesn't sit completely flush with the base. It weighs 236g and measures 11cm by 8.8cm (just over 4 1/4 inches by nearly 3 1/2 inches). The depth is 4cm (just over 1 1/2 inches).
