Description

Edward Callow: A good framed marine oil painting on board by this member of the famous Callow family of Victorian painters. Signed bottom right corner. Well painted and very atmospheric this painting portrays a small-sailed fishing vessel approaching a French harbour with what could be a lighthouse at the end. There are larger sailing-ships in the background, all struggling in the heavy seas and apparent strong winds. Dimensions: H: 15.25 inches (38.6 cm). W: 18.5 inches (47 cm) Date: c.1860-80

Internal Ref: 1428/Q
