Description

An outstanding Victorian natural old cut diamond cluster ring set in 18ct yellow gold. HALLMARKS Not Hallmarked but tested as 18ct. MEASUREMENTS Cluster head; just over 16mm. Nice foliate carved shank at the ring head, still nice and thick. Central old rose cut diamond 8mm therefore measuring approx 2.10ct in spread... this is a particularly deep rose cut held in a pinch setting that is backed. This is not just a slice as per more usual for rose cuts, therefore making this very rare! Smaller old rose cut diamond surrounding approx 0.05ct. These diamonds are superb quality with excellent clarity. The central large rose cut is flawless to the naked eye, with a loupe Si2. Colour is impossible to grade as this is set into a closed gold backing. CONDITION Good condition, minimal signs of wear commensurate of age. Rare to find such a lovely large cluster in fab condition with a great show on the finger! RING SIZE GB K US 5 1/2. Stunning genuine ring of superb quality and design.
