Description

A lovely mahogany lap tray dating from the early 19th century. It stands on four small turned legs with a raised shaped gallery on three sides. It is good quality with a nice colour and patina. It is in good solid order with no major damages. There are some general signs of age and use and a small chip on one back corner but nothing detrimental. It has been cleaned and lightly polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photographs so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
