Description

Outstanding solid oak wardrobe from furniture manufacturers Waring and Gillow. It has three full length panel doors, decorative grey metal escutcheons and drop handles. The first door opens to reveal four short shelves and the other two open to a long shelf with hanging bar underneath and mirror. The mirror is secure and has no chips, cracks or foxing. This is a solid piece of history offering a lot of storage space and years more use. Waring & Gillow was a noted firm of English furniture manufacturers and antique dealers formed in 1897 by the merger of Gillows of Lancaster and London and Waring of Liverpool.
