SoldItem Reference: SA1018945*Date of manufacture: Edwardian

Description

An unusual antique brooch in the form of a chain with alternating textured and polished links. It is a smart brooch which would look very businesslike on a jacket for work or would make a lovely partner to a gold chain bracelet. The brooch has a metal fastening pin on the back and is marked 9 under the hinge indicating 9 ct gold. Condition: In great condition (the pin at the back is slightly wonky, however still works well). Period: Edwardian Measurements: Width: 4.3 cm Height: 0.8 cm Weight: 1.94 grams Weights and measurements are approximate. (Please note, the antique box pictured is not included).
