Silver & Glass Swan dish

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA1019117*Date of manufacture: 1920

Description

This is a very large silver and glass swan dish. Possibly used for butter but would look great on the Christmas dining table with nuts or sweets in. This is continental in origin dating from the first half of the 20th century with later import marks for London 1973 Makers mark ELd, not traced. I have had a few of these swans but this is the largest. Super condition H 16.6 cm L 16.5 Wing span 22 cm W of glass 9.5 cm Due to the weight of this item will only ship within the UK.
