Description

A fabulous antique Victorian sterling silver and glass claret jug which has a bulbous shaped body with attractive etched glass detailing depicting flowers and bows and resting on a circular star cut base. The decoration on the hinged lid is unusual and the rope styled handle is a particularly interesting feature with bows attached at the end. The quality and design of this claret jug sets it apart from the normal examples and it would make a statement when displayed. It will hold 1.1 litres of wine. Height: 31.3 cms (12.3") Diameter of body: 10.5 cms (4.1") It was hallmarked in Birmingham for 1868 by Hiron, Plante & Co. Complimentary postage is included within the price of this claret jug.
