Description

This wonderful banded blue and white Spode earthenware footbath dates to middle of 19thC. It bears a blue printed Spode mark to base and is decorated in the 'Union Wreath' pattern. It is in excellent condition which is rare. With a couple of firing cracks, slight discolouration to rim and the remnants of an old label, all of which can be seen in photos, please examine carefully. This is an opportunity to purchase a wonderfully decorative piece of antique Spode in virtually original condition
