Description

Antique Walnut Shaped Bracket Clock With Ormoul Mounts By Lenzkirch. This lovely Lenzkirch clock has a walnut case with a fantastic colour and grain. The clock is shaped to the top with a moulding to the edge as well as being flanked by two rounded pieces. The body of the case then has two beautifully shaped columns to the front as well as an array of beautiful, shaped ormolu mounts. The sides of the case then have lovely brass fretwork panels backed in material each with a lovely moulding surround. The body then has a further moulding to the bottom leading to a thin area with ormolu mounts to the front leading to the final moulding. Finally the case has two square feet to the back as well as two beautifully shaped feet to the front. The dial is then arched and brass. It has a silvered chapter ring set out in Roman numerals with a thin ring to the outside marking the minutes, with every five minutes being marked in Arabic numerals. The dial then has a silvered "SLOW" and "FAST" dial with is flanked by two brass spandrels, with a further two to the bottom corners. The dial then has two lovely, shaped fingers as well as a shaped hand to the slow and fast dial. Finally th...
