Description

A lovely smaller sized French Butchers Block made from Ash and Elm and sycamore. This was purchased directly from a boucherie in France that was sadly closing. It's full of charm and character and we have not touched it, you could strip it for a lighter raw look and wax it up but whatever you choose it's a great look and highly practical. It retains its original makers mark, these are becoming increasingly hard to find now. 62 cm square 76 cm high
