This is a fine quality antique English Georgian oak wall rack, designed to be wall hung, circa 1780, in excellent condition. The kitchen wall rack has been adapted from a Georgian dresser. The Georgian oak wall rack features a protruding shaped canopy, with a plain frieze, secured by two waterfall shaped sides, united by two shelves below, which retain the original plate beads, to stop the plates sliding off the shelves. The Georgian oak wall rack comes with two brass colour metal brackets to secure the wall-rack to the wall. The Georgian oak wall rack boasts a rich dark-brown period oxblood colour. As it boasts the original polish, it has a fantastic colour, depth and patination this can only be achieved through the age and years of care and cleaning it has received. It...
