Description

This antique 19th century French carved giltwood bed is a magnificent piece of furniture that exudes timeless elegance and craftsmanship. This opulent bed represents the epitome of French neoclassical design and the artistry of the 19th century. Crafted from solid giltwood, the bed frame showcases the warmth and richness of the wood, which has been meticulously gilded to create a luxurious, golden finish. The gilded surface adds a touch of extravagance and complements the intricate carving beautifully. The design of the bed is a testament to the French neoclassical style, with its graceful curves and intricate detailing. The headboard and footboard are adorned with elaborately carved pair of love birds on a pair of quivers. These decorative elements are a testament to the artisans' skills and their ability to replicate the classical motifs of ancient Greece and Rome. Measurements.
