Description

A fine quality pair of Victorian Staffordshire pottery spaniel dogs. The pair sit typically upright on their haunches. The opposing dogs have wonderful expressions and are modelled beautifully. The decoration in overglaze colours is a russet red for the coat, with black muzzle and yellow eyes. They retain the gilding to the collars and chains which is often worn away. The condition is excellent with just the usual minor firing minor faults. The pair are wonderful early examples in really good condition and date to C.1860 Overall sizes in inches each: 7 wide 3 ¾ deep 9 ½ high
