Description

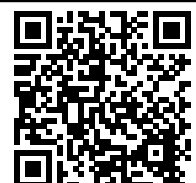

A fabulous Art Deco silver cigarette box of stylish design. The box is rectangular in shape and is fitted with a hinged lid. It retains the original cedar wood interior, with the removable central divider - enabling use for cigars. The body and lid have engine turned decoration and to the centre of the lid is a round vacant cartouche. The thumb grip is formed with a handsome, traditional Art Deco motif and the box stands on four raised legs, beautifully echoing the thumb grip in design. To the underside of the base is an attractive panel of oak. An elegant and practical piece, with a number of alternative uses. Dimensions below. Postage & Packing :- £12.00 UK £22.00 Europe £28.00 Outside Europe Condition :- Excellent, with no dents or splits, one small dimple to the top surface of the lid. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable. Date :- Birmingham 1936. Maker :- John Rose. Height :- 4.8 cms. Width :- 17.7 cms. Depth :- 8.8 cms.
