Description

A rare 18th century piece reflecting the pineapple mania which swept across Georgian England - the exotic golden fruit cost the equivalent of thousands of pounds/dollars and rather than being eaten was displayed by those wanting to show off their wealth and status. Pineapples could even be rented and they were used as motifs for all kinds of designs and ornaments. This solid silver pendant is in excellent antique condition with a lovely chunky feel and a beautiful antique patina. Size: Approx 1.2 x 3.6cm. Weight: 5.6g. FREE INTERNATIONAL SHIPPING!
