Description

A 19thC portrait of a Lieutenant General of La Grande Armee. His rank depicted by the three stars on his epaulettes. He is wearing the medal Legion d'honneur so a distinguished military man. His uniform is that of General de Division as far as we can ascertain. The family crest in the top right corner needs further research. There is some damage and repair (see top of head above the hair line and some small patches to the rear of the canvas). The original frame has some losses to the outer gesso molding but overall a fine decorative piece. Overall 70 cm high and 59 cm wide. Exposed canvas 58.5 cm high and 47.5 wide.
