Description

French bronze sculpted by Jean-Baptiste Germain. (1841-1910.) A powerful image of a young man in motion with expertly sculpted features and detail. His muscular form and metallic bronze hue shining through the brownish patina. Wearing nothing except a modest sweeping fabric and holding a cloth bag of seeds in his left arm and his right hand mid-scatter he was most likely inspired by the Christian parable of the sower. One of the tales said to be told by Jesus to his disciples. The figure will most certainly make an impact as any center display piece. Written on the plaque below the sculptors' signature is "Souvenir du personnel de la S.C.O.A. Paris & Manchester" In a very good condition with only slight signs of age related wear. Originates from France. Dated as late 19th Century to early 20th Century. Made from solid bronze.
