Description

-Welcome to Mersham Manor Antiques- A fine quality antique late 19th century satinwood inlaid cabinet, in the George III Neo-Classical taste. Made by the renowned cabinet makers, Cowtan & Sons Ltd of 309 Oxford Street London. c.1880. The wonderfully shimmering colour of the satinwood is beautifully decorated with elegant and abundant fine inlays of Adam style urns and swags. With bows and naturalistic motifs to the two front doors, centred with musical instruments to one door and a bow and arrow motif to the other, which are rather exquisite, all bordered with rosewood cross-banding and delicate bell-flowers to the cupboard dividers. The top is also decorated beautifully with a delightful inlaid Georgian fan-light design. The doors open to reveal a large single shelved cupboard to the centre, with the two side corner cupboards having two shelves each. These can be removed if a larger space is required. The doors retain the original brass fully working locks and sliding bolts. The cabinet has two Cowtan & Sons Ltd labels, one inside the right side door and one to the back. Standing on splayed feet. Excellent antique condition. All marquetry is in excellent con...
