Description

A good example of a traditional oak Cricket Table dating from the early 19th Century. It has a circular planked top supported by three legs with a shelf below. It is in good original condition with a rich patina. There are many signs of age and use but no major damages and it is a sturdy piece. There are some general light surface marks and knocks and some signs of historic woodworm around the bottom of the legs but this hasn't affected the piece structurally or aesthetically. It has been lightly cleaned and polished and is ready for use. Approximate Measurements: Height : 28 1/2" (72cm) Diameter : 32 1/4" (82cm) The best description comes from the photographs so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
