Description

This is a very high quality Victorian country house armchair by renowned makers Sopwiths of Newcastle. Sopwiths of Newcastle were joiners, cabinet and chair makers (1787–1935). This example is an early Victorian model c.1850 with a bold design and large turned front legs. The shape is what really sets this apart and the quality is abundant. Very comfy and the buttoned detail will make this very inviting once upholstered. Height 93cm Width 77cm Depth 95cm Depth of seat 57cm Height of seat 43cm (On my website) If you would like this armchair upholstered please click yes in the upholstery drop down menu. This would require 6 metres of material. You can supply your own or please get in touch and we will send you the list of fabric companies we work with. All my antique armchairs have been fully restored, springs, legs, padding etc so these will stand the test of time even if used everyday. Price includes UK mainland delivery
