Description

An excellent example of a mid 18thc English oak tripod table...with bold proportions and attractive turned column terminating, in a vase design at the base....it has nicely shaped legs and pad feet....the whole table has gained a very good colour...these tables are so useful, fitting in perfectly with a country house, cottage or flat....and so buyable at the moment...you could not make a new one for the price of this lovely example and then you would have to leave it for 200 years to get this wonderful colour....! English. C1760-80.
