Description

A large antique pine wardrobe (Circa: 1910), with a shaped top, 2 nicely panelled doors (which open fully), and 2 small drawers at the bottom. The drawers have been designed to be locked when the doors are closed. This could be altered if required. Currently there are the original swinging hanging pegs fitted at the top inside. These can be removed, and a hanging rail fitted as required. This wardrobe separates into 2 main sections for delivery, so it should be ok to go upstairs, depending on your stairway. Please contact us for more details. With an internal depth (hanging space) of 18.5", should be fine for most items of clothing.. Currently in bare wood. Can be purchased as it is for £1000, or waxed: £1150. Both prices include the fitting of a new brass hanging rail. Height: 81", width: 65", depth: 21.5", internal depth: 18.5"

Internal Ref: Z0605F
