Description

A grand set of fourteen solid mahogany antique dining chairs in the Chippendale style. They were made in England, and they date from around the 1930's. The quality is fantastic, they are all beautifully constructed with beautiful pierced lattice backs. They sit on straight legs with double stretchers for extra stability. This set consists of twelve straight side chairs and two carver armchairs. The condition is excellent for their age, the mahogany frames have all been re-polished and the drop in seats re-upholstered in a cream cotton fabric. The mahogany just has some very minor wear under the polish here and there.
