Description

This is a beautiful set of six English antique William IV flame mahogany dining chairs, circa 1830 in date. They have striking carved top and mid rails that feature decorative C scrolls and anthemion. The upholstered gold patterned silk over stuffed seats are above a decorative carved seat rail and they are raised on turned tapering legs typical of William IV design. Add an elegant touch to your home with these exceptional antique English chairs. Condition: In really excellent condition having been beautifully cleaned and polished in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation.
