Description

This is a antique gilt bronze figural sculpture of Indian Scout holding a bow & arrow, by the renowned German sculptor Josef Drischler (1838 - 1917) and bearing his signature, circa 1900 in date, please see the oval photograph of the sculptor. The gilt bronze Indian Scout is holding a bow & arrow raised on a naturalistic rectangular gilt bronze base, signed J. Drischler, and mounted on a marble socle. It features the figure in action dressed in traditional native costume with his hand raised above his eyes blocking out the sun. This high quality hot cast solid bronze was produced using the traditional 'lost wax' process. The attention to detail is absolutely fantastic and the sculpture is extremely life-like. Condition: In really excellent condition, please see photos for confirmation. Dimensions in cm: Height 27 x Width 23 x Depth 11. Dimensions in inches: Height 11 inches x Width 9 inches x Depth 4 inches. Joseph Drischler presumably studied at the Academy in Berlin around 1880. He was initially active at the workshop of the famous Berlin sculptor Rudolf Siemering (1835-1905). He then spent some time in America, before returning to Berlin. Drischler'...
