Description

A Very Decorative Italian Tolwear Lantern. This very unusual Hall Lantern is painted to simulate verdigris patination, the Lamp has 6 sides (one of these is a locking opening door to access the interior). This very unusual Baroque light is wired for electricity and ready to hang. This is a superb piece of 19th century Italian metal work there are no cracks in the glass and it is working. The Lantern is 10" in diameter and 20" high, it could be suspended from chain if a longer light is required TVY62
