Description

This is a delightful George III silver folding silver fruit knife in excellent condition. It has the most exquisite mother of pearl handle, engraved with a bird amongst foliage. The handle inlaid with a rectangular silver reserve. The blade with a bright-cut border and set of hallmarks. It is only partially hallmarked; ie no maker's mark, which was often the case for fruit knives and forks. Good Georgian fruit knives are scarce and it is therefore nice to find a Georgian example in pristine condition. Hallmarks: Duty Mark (George III) Lion Passant. Sheffield date letter "Y" for 1816.
