Mahogany Serpentine Console Table. This Mahogany Serpentine Console Table is Raised Upon Tapered Legs with Fluted Decoration and Spade Feet. The Table Features 3 Oak Lined Drawers which Retain Their Original Brass Knobs. The Centre Drawer Having Brass Inlaid Lines, the Drawers Either Side Having Satinwood Panels. The Top of The Table Having Wonderful Book Matched Veneers, Rosewood Crossbanding and Brass Inlays. A serpentine console table is a type of furniture designed with a serpentine, or S-shaped, curve in its structure. This distinctive shape resembles the winding, sinuous path of a snake, hence the name "serpentine." These tables are typically long and narrow, making them suitable for placement in hallways, entryways, or behind sofas. These tables are versatile and can serve both functional and decorative purposes. You can use them to display decorative items, hold lamps, store keys, or even serve as a place to drop your mail or other small items when you enter your home. Serpentine console tables are a beautiful addition to your living space and can make a statement with their unique design. Presented in Good Condition.
