Description

This is an antique Windsor chair. An English, elm and yew elbow or armchair, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1850. Country house appeal, in distinctive 'Double Windsor' form. Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order. Elm and yew stocks show fine grain interest. Appealing in colour with eye-catching deep caramel hues. The tall, shaped top rail benefits from a gently chamfered rear edge. A pierced, shaped back splat sits between slender spindles. Cow horn arms supported at the leading edge by turned balusters. Traditional, carved saddle seat with gently recessed squab. Raised upon turned and splayed legs, with cupped knees. United by a H-stretcher with tapering spindles. Standing upon four elongated circular feet at each corner. This is a fascinating antique Windsor chair, graced with superb colour and delightful country house craftsmanship. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
