Description

A very attractive large early 19th century oak housekeepers cupboard. The large oak house keepers cupboard has a moulded cornice top, above three panelled doors with Prince of Wales feathers marquetry inlay on each cupboard. Each cupboard unlocks to reveal two fixed shelves, giving three spacious areas of storage. The lower section has a central cupboard with a fixed shelf inside giving two sizable shelving spaces, this is flanked either side by four drawers, each with two drop handles featuring the Prince of Wales crest. Raised on a plinth base. Item Ref; M- 4945 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 215.5cm / Width - 188cm / Depth - 50cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related scratches to the edges and stains to the inner shelves. There is evidence of historic woodworm to the back, however this is now long gone and has been fully treated as a precaution. The large oak house keepers cupboard is structurally solid and sound and has a working lock and key. Overall, an excellent example of its kind. Our experienced carpenter meticulously inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our collec...
