Description

This is a delightful, original painting after Francois Boucher in its original high quality gilt bronze ormolu frame dating from around 1890. The painting is beautifully executed in bold gouache colours depicting a lady at bath time with her maids. The work is signed by the artist R. Dumans (after Boucher) and is in excellent condition. It is in a beautiful bronze ormolu easel frame which is a heavy and very good quality piece that compliments the work finely. Francois Boucher (1703-1770) was a French painter, etcher and draughtsman who famously worked in the Rococo style. He is well renowned for his idyllic and voluptuous paintings on classical themes, decorative allegories and pastoral scenes. He was perhaps the most celebrated painter and decorative artist of the 18th century. This beautiful painting is one of several good miniatures we currently have listed from the same collection. This work measures 17 cms by 12 cms overall with the painting being 12 cms by 9.5 cms. This item has a standard Ivory exemption declaration number 9SL33E7A UK insured delivery is £15
