Description

A superb 18th Century low Spanish table with a solid one-piece Walnut top. The top stands on ornate carved legs supported by the original metal work. It is a low table, suitable for a coffee table or behind a sofa, but there are no obvious signs that it has ever been reduced in height. The table has a lot of character and the patination is just superb. There are many old surface marks and signs of age and use and some old repairs but it is a very solid and sturdy piece. There are signs of historic worm below the top and in the legs which has all been treated as a precaution and hasn't affected the table structurally or aesthetically. It has been cleaned and gently polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photographs so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
