Description

OPEN BOOKCASE This exquisite antique rosewood open bookcase, a true testament to timeless craftsmanship, is now available for discerning collectors and enthusiasts. This remarkable piece, reminiscent of the Gillows style, boasts an exceptional size and proportion that will grace any country house or interior with its elegance and charm. This antique open bookcase is a testament to the elegance and craftsmanship of a bygone era. Its rosewood construction exudes warmth and character, making it a unique addition to any space. While we cannot confirm its exact maker, the craftsmanship and quality suggest the influence of Gillows, a renowned English furniture maker known for their exceptional pieces during the 18th and 19th centuries. With generous dimensions, this bookcase offers ample storage space for your cherished books, collectibles, or display items. It commands attention with its stately presence. Dimensions - Height 103cm x Width 305cm x Depth 37cm The addition of a brass gallery not only adds to the bookcase's aesthetic appeal but also provides a practical feature, preventing items from accidentally sliding off the top.
