Description

A Regency period mahogany bow fronted dressing, side table with three drawers. The front has a well shaped and generously sized knee hole, making the table very comfortable to sit at. The top and front are inlaid and highlighted with both shaped and geometric satinwood and ebony string inlay. The corners of the table are castellated above the four finely turned legs. The table has all its original colour and is in excellent condition throughout. The brass handles have been replaced at a later date. Sizes: 39"(99cms) wide, 21"(54cms) deep, 31 ¾ "(81cms) high. Date circa 1810.
