Description

Outstanding bentwood hat & coat stand having a crown of 8-curved "S" shaped hooks. The central stem has four vertical sections topped with a turned finial. It's base features a ring, which supports umbrellas and sticks and has four curved twin legs holding the hallstand firmly on the ground. In fantastic original condition with a rich colouring and amazing patina which can only be achieved through age and years of care and cleaning. An extremely functional item that will look stunning in any hallway or office.
