Description

An antique Anatolian design rug 149 cm long by 88 cm wide. Finely knotted, being by our measurement over 500 knots per square inch. Three large rectangular gul's interspaced centrally with four smaller ones. Typical Anatolian motifs within the surrounding border of stylized flower and geometric patterns. There are subtle differences in the weaving of these patterns as we show in the photographs. Some wear to the edges (compare left to right) and some losses to small patches of the pile. Extremely clean and in our opinion very attractive. FREE UK mainland delivery. OVERSEAS buyers please ask for shipping costs before purchasing.
